

ATTENTION BASEBALL FANS!

WANTED: WORCESTER BRAVEHEARTS PEN PALS

Do you enjoy writing?

Do you want to make new friends and get to know the Bravehearts baseball players?

You can help make these players feel “at home” in Central Massachusetts by becoming a Pen Pal!

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Beginning in May, individuals from Open Sky will begin writing by introducing themselves and welcoming the Bravehearts team players to Worcester. Then, they can ask players about themselves and share ideas on topics they find interesting. Journals will then be swapped so the Bravehearts team players can write back.

Writing continues back and forth until the season ends with the final home game and the Pen Pal Cookout Social on August 3rd.

ONLY 20 SPOTS AVAILABLE!
